Master Butledge Armistead Parker, of No. 207 West Franklin, had the misfortune to break his wrist, just above the joint, on Friday. Dr. Grinnan was called it and gave him chloroform and set the bone, and the boy is now doing well. It seems that he was out on the limb of a peach tree when one of his companions, who was also in the tree, came out to join him. The weight of both boys broke the limb and they fell to the ground. . . .

Distillery Raided.

Oistillery Raided.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO N. C., March 12.—Something unusual in Gulford county was the discovery yesterday of an illeit distillery in full blast on a creek near Tabernacie Church, a few miles from the city, and not very far from 'holiering' distance of the revenue headquarters of the district. Deputy United States Marshal J. gr. Millikan, Revenue Agents Price Ensiev and O. A. Starbuck made a raid on the establishment in the gray hours of the morning, destroying the liquor found, emptying out the material in readness for making more, cutting up the still and scaring the four or five men seen at the estabnishment as they approached so badly they took to the woods and never came back to be arrested.

vertisement of a well known dyspepsia preparation, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; as he himself was a regular user of the tablets, he began speculating as to how many of the other traveling men in the dilning room were also friends of the popular remedy for indigestion.

He says: I counted twenty-three men at the tables and in the hotel office. I took

SEASON AT VIRGINIA BEACH

VIRGINIA BEACH, March 12 .- Many people coming up from the Southern resorts in Plorida and North Carolina, are now enjoying the mild weather at Virginia Beach; most of the younger contingent go in for hunting, fishing and riding. Partes are made up every day for shooting, going over to the famous Currituck Bound for their sport, where game is found in abundance.

The fresh water lakes on the edge of Miss Verna Moore, of Church Hill, who gave a delightful masquerade party Friday night, was assisted in receiving by Miss Minhio Bolan. The cups and prizes to be given, have not all been decided upon yet, but among those already offered is a very handsome cup, by Mr. Thomas G. Leath, of Richinond. Two by the Automobile Association, and Virginia Beach lots will be given by the Virginia Beach Development Company, of which Mr. James S. Groves, manager of the Princess Ario is the president.

Too much cannot be said of the delights of the hotel, and all who wish to be comfortably cared for, find this a most desirable place, especially where the catering is concerned. The fare is excellent, with courteous attention from the watters, and the fresh sea food is one of the delights of the place.

Among the late arrivals are S. G. Reynolds and Ira A. Hatch, of Cheyenne, S. D., who have charge of the Government Indian Reservations in the far West; Rev. Philip H. Brown and daughter, and are the sea to have a fow york; Mr. and

The men at the Life Saving Station, No. 1, on Thursday morning gave an exhibition drill for the benefit of the guests at the Princess Anne, which they witnessed with intense interest, realizing the bravery of these men who in storms and amidst great perils risk everything in their noble efforts to save the lives of those wrecked and suffering on the great deep. The above station has one of the best records of any on the coast for their success in the saving of lives and of herole rescues.

The Gulf course is becoming more and more popular each day, as the hotel fills up with new arrivals, and a tournament is soon to be arranged for, to be held at the same time of the automobile races in May.

Much interest is being shown in these races, and the course will be tried to-day by a party of forty arriving from New Messenger Discusses Its Relations to Other Y. M. C. A. Work.

The last issue of the Monthly Messenger, published by the Railrond Department of the Y. M. C. A. in this city, appears in a new and attractive dress, its entire mechanical make-up is artistic and it contains a large amount of interesting matter pertaining to the association and its work.

The Messenger's leading editorial marches right up to the question that is agitating the Y. M. C. A. at large, to wit: the departmental relationship question. While devoid of bitteiness, the article is very pronounced in its advocacy of a readjustment of existing regulations, whereby the railroad department may be unfectored with undue centralized limitations. We quote a concluding paragraph:

"But if the policy is misinterpreted of it is wrong, why not change it? In is is the wise and logical course to pursue. The "Railroad Jepartment" has outgrown its swaddling clothes. It can stand alone—aye, walk! It surely does not need a nurse! Certainly this can be said of the large majority of these railroad associations. They are not wise in their own concet. They do not desire to "flock by themselves." They realize the truth that in unity there is Strogget, and that has favoritism, but resent being in a kindergarten category. This is just as matural as it is for water to seek its level. The highest consideration of justiation of the property of

The next novelty will be "Why?"
It's better than either of its successful predecessors. It's more interesting because it gives readers of the paper a chance to think. In fact, it's not a guessing contest, but a thinking contest, and the ones who have the best control of their thinking spparatus will win the prizes. Everybody has an equal chance.
